

COACHHOUSE BY SAM MARSHALL (also over) This project was undertaken to convert an original turn-of-the-century brickwork coachhouse into a residence and work space for Marshall. The clarity of the existing building has been retained by doing as little as possible to the brickwork fabric while making it livable by the addition of insertions into the shell. In this way another layer is added to the building's history and structure.

